CITY NEWS.

The toboggan starts at 2 o'clock today.

-The toboggan drew another big prove the tummer ammement of Memphis. crowd last even ne. It will doubtless -The Rev. T. P. Crawford, D.D. who has been forty years a missionary in China, will speak at the Central Baptist Church tonight at 8 o'clock.

-Monday, July 5th, will be observed as a holiday, in consequence of which the postoffice will close at 10 o'clock a.m., carriers making but one delivery and collection.

-The following named persons were granted marriage liceuses yesterday:
Bob Branch and Mrs. Patte Jones.
David Tras and Mrs. Annie Hatenett,
C. N. Harcher and Miss T. Rowens.

-The strangements for the grand excursion to come off about the 15th of August via Memphis and Litt'e Rock railroad for Arkansas and Texa , have been completed from Mississipp.
Alabama, Tennessee, Kennucky, Nor h and South Caroline, the fare being pa at a very low rate, with stopover priv ileges going and coming. Good for thirty days.

-The following is the report of Inspector Lane, of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, for June, 1886; Sore, disabled mules and hores relieved, 71; children protected 1; total, 72: persons stressed, 37; persons found guilty, 31; persons disabstract 6. charged, 6.

-The choir of the Central Baptist Church will be led this morning and evening by Mr. J. R Branham, of Macor, Ga., with a cornet. Mr. Bran-bam is a cornetist of considerable note. As he will lecate here he will lead this choir hereafter.

-The Young Men's Christian Association will have their regular services this afternoon at 4:00 o'clock. Service will be conducted by J. H. Thompson, a'so Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, the young men will have their gospel meeting conducted by R. A. Jordan.

-Mansford's will be open today un-til I o'c'ock, and he has a full line of magazines for July; also the midsum-mer London Nezz and Graphic, two new works, in cheap form; Effic Ogil-vie, by Mrs. Oliphant, and a Faire Dam-zeli, by Stewart. News from north-couth east and west. Manaford's is south, east and west. Manaford's is the place to get your reading material.

-The Typographical Union picnic to be given at E tival Park next Tuesday promises to be one of the most enjoyable events of the sesson. Arnold's full band will be in attendance, and handrome prizes for good waltzing and markamanship will be contested for. As the types are famous for the beauty of the ladies that grace their picnics, there will doubtless be a great growd in attendance.

-The orphans of Memphis have certainly cause to be grateful to Emile C. LaHache, assistant secretary of the Cotton Exchange. It was his active mind that conceived the idea of a game of base ball for their benefit, and his generous heart that inspired the co-operation of others in the good He attended to all the details, cause. He attended to all the details, begged the necessary materials from all available rources, and worked so faithfully that no excentes were in-curred. The net proceeds as else-where published are $450. All honor to La Hache.

-The County Court will meet to-morrow. The most important mait r that will engage its attention will be the selection of a bridge su; crinten-dent. The probabilities are that an engineer will be selected for the place. This is rendered advisable by the fact that the county is going largely into the business of building iron bridges, and while Mr. Cole, the present superimtendent, hes given general satisfac-tion in superintending the construc-tion of wooden, it is thought that an experienced engineer will be more suitable to protect the county's in-terests in the construction of iron

He Played Baseball

His Home Run Hit Captured the Heart of an Heiress.

It was a close and exciting game. Eight innings had been played, and the score stood a tie. Memphis had retired its opponent in the ninth inning without scoring. Memphis was at the bat. Two men were out. Two strikes had been called upon the man at the bat. The next ball pitched came straight toward him. Then it took a sudden curve. He swung his bat. Would he miss it? The excitement was painful. There was a quick, short stroke. Ah! he has hit the ball. Away high in the air it sails. See, the center fielder is chazing it. The spectators hold their breath. Suddenly there is one tumul-tuous shout. The ball has gone far over the head of the fielder, who is chasing it. Around the bases speeds the batter.
